4. Guidelines

Applications will only be valid after written confirmation by the organizer (via e-mail). The organizer reserves the right to reject applications without justification, as well as the right to rank in accordance of artistic value.

The exhibitor is not entitled to sublet the whole or part of the booth assigned to him or to give it to third parties without the organizer's permission.

However, it is possible to divide the exhibition space by registering together, provided that both exhibitors are accepted by the organizer.

By signing the registration, the application becomes binding and the exhibitor agrees to participating in the event and to the immediate payment of the agreed participation fee after written confirmation from the organizer. Official regulations as well as the house rules are to be kept. There are no verbal agreements.

The organizer decides on the exact location of the requested booth space on the venue. Placement requests are considered, if possible, if they are announced at the same time as the application.

The exhibitor is obliged to keep the stand up until the end of the event. Otherwise, a fine of twice the participation fee will be charged.

The exhibitor is responsible for ensuring that all necessary permits are available for his activity on the stand, and that he complies with applicable trade law (commercial license) and competition law, sanitary, fire and police regulations and laws.

5. Privacy & Publishing

With the registration, the exhibitor grants the organizer the consent to the publication and passing on to third parties (for the purpose of the application of the event) the dates and photos given in the course of the registration:

- in PR media (such as magazines, newspapers)
- on the homepages of the organizer and the event
- on advertising material (such as posters and flyers)
- as well as on social media and consent to the storage of the data for the purpose of automatic processing for contract execution.

The following data is used:

- name / company name
- Address data
- Phone number
- Homepage
- Pictures of goods, product and persons

6. Registration

Registration deadline is November 30th, 2021

A written confirmation from the organizer will be given after this deadline.

7. Booth design

Each exhibition space is provided with an uncovered table and a chair.

Each exhibitor is responsible for the individual design of the space provided. The presentation of the exhibits should be appealing and emphasize their value.

The exhibitor may use his own individual table lighting, not table lamps will be provided by the organizer. The exhibitor may only use ÖVE certified electrical appliances and cables. For damage from defective electrical installations, the exhibitor is liable. Wherever possible, please use energy efficient bulbs (e.g., LED).

No nails, screws or similar may put into walls and floors. Only freestanding structures may be used.

Each exhibition space must be identified by a nameplate (min. A5) with the name and address of the exhibitor.

The exhibitor is obliged to keep the stand clean during the entire duration of the event, to dispose of his own waste and to leave the stand in a clean condition after the end of the event. Any necessary replacement cleaning by the organizer is at the expense of the exhibitor.

8. Liability

The general supervision of the site and the halls is provided by the organizer without liability for loss and damage. The exhibitor is responsible for the supervision and guarding of the stand during exhibition times. This also applies during the set-up and dismantling times.

The organizer assumes no warranty and guarantee for the success of the event and any profit and turnover expectations of the exhibitors. In this regard, no claims for damages can be made to the organizer. The exhibitor is liable for persons and property damage caused by the exhibitor. It is recommended to take out a corresponding liability insurance.

9. Final provisions

Changes or additions to these terms and conditions can only be made in writing. Should one of these provisions be or become ineffective or contradict statutory provisions, the validity of the remaining provisions remains unaffected. The two parties will replace the ineffective provision by one that comes as close as possible to the meaning and purpose of the invalid provision. The same applies in the case of a contract gap. The application is governed by Austrian law on the contractual relationship, the place of performance and jurisdiction is Vienna.
